Note-Able Music Therapy Services & Volunteers of America NCNN collaborate to bring the gift of music to senior citizens in quarantine

Reno, Nevada – Thursday, June 11, 2020 – Note-Able Music Therapy Services (NMTS), in collaboration with Volunteers of America NCNN (VOA-NCNN), will be bringing music to the senior citizens living in quarantine on Tuesday 6/30 at 10:00 a.m. NMTS music therapists will be outside of the VOA Sierra Manor facility playing, singing and serenading the seniors in their balconies. Now more than ever we need music in our lives to support our health and connection with others, especially for those who already have limited mobility, social isolation, and access to arts. This will be an uplifting and inspiring event for all and we welcome media to share the experience with our community.

WHEN: Tuesday 6/30/20 | 10:00 a.m.

WHERE: Sierra Manor II 2360 Paradise Drive, Reno, NV 89512

About Note-Able Music Therapy Services:

Note-Able Music Therapy Services (NMTS) creates lasting change in the lives of people of all abilities through music. NMTS addresses people’s social, physical, and mental health needs through adaptive music, music therapy, and inclusive performance opportunities. Individual and collective well-being is profoundly enhanced through creative expression and social inclusion. We are committed to the belief that every person deserves opportunities for creative expression, their voice deserves to be celebrated, and we are healthier as a community when we do so.
